

New Mexico is at a crossroads.

Our government shouldn't rig the system to benefit the rich and big corporations—while middle class families and small businesses struggle to get by.

The Legislature has gone back to work in Santa Fe.

Change things for the better...

Let Governor Martinez know
the "same old" policies just won't work!