Lt. Governor To Rally Early Risers on Election Day In Albuquerque!

When: 4:30am
8:30am

Contact: Lauran Cowdrey
C: 505-453-7840

Where: Coordinated Campaign
3301 Central NE
Albuquerque, NM 87106

Lt. Governor Diane Denish will spend election morning rallying volunteers and joining them in their Get Out The Vote efforts. The Lt. Governor will accompany a group of foot soldiers hanging Get Out The Vote doorknockers at 4:30am. At 8:30am Lt. Governor Denish will rally more volunteers and join them as they canvass Albuquerque neighborhoods.

Lt. Governor Diane Denish used her opportunity to vote early, in order to aid volunteers in their final hours of campaigning.

"In 2000, New Mexico was decided by a little more than 300 votes," Denish said. "It is imperative we encourage everyone to vote, because in this battleground state your ballot can make the difference."

Lt. Governor Denish serves as chair of the Kerry campaign in New Mexico. The events will begin at the coordinated campaign at 4:30am and 8:30am. For more information on the campaign, call 505-830-3650.
