

Jobs for Las Cruces - PAC

September 14, 2009

I'm sorry you couldn't attend the Political Action Committee luncheon on August 27th at which we raised more than $20,000 for the upcoming election. This is a good start for our fundraising efforts and we are grateful for the generous contributions received to date.

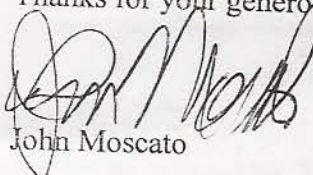

Since the lunch, Gil Sorg has announced he is running against Gil Jones and Olga Pedroza is running against Dolores Archuleta. Both Sorg and Pedroza have made it clear they are not business friendly and expect the cost of doing business in Las Cruces to escalate if they are elected.

In the last race, Jim Harbison, a retired Army Lt. Colonel and Vietnam Vet has stepped up to run against Sharon Thomas. Thomas's voting record and activism speak for themselves about her stances on the most important issues in trying to improve this economy.

This will be a costly election, but much more costly if we don't get involved now and take a stand to elect pro business candidates into the city council.

If you have contributed, thank you. If you haven't, please fill out the enclosed card and send an investment in the future of your business. We need your help today.

Thanks for your generosity,

John Moscato
