Who is Dennis Montoya?

The Albuquerque Journal is putting the pieces together.

And here's what they've found:

A long line of unethical behavior for Dennis Montoya

The Albuquerque Journal recently reported that Appeals Court candidate Dennis Montoya “has run afoul of several judges in federal court, where he has been sanctioned, fined, and had his legal ethics and competency as a lawyer questioned.”

— Albuquerque Journal 3/21/2010

Now, the State Disciplinary Board has charged Dennis Montoya with lying, fraud, and deceit

On April 28th, The Disciplinary Board of the New Mexico Supreme Court charged Dennis Montoya with a “pattern of misconduct” including lying, dishonesty, fraud, and deceit. The charges stem from Montoya’s actions while representing an eight-year-old boy whose father was killed in a car accident. According to the Board, because of Montoya’s actions the boy didn’t receive hundreds of thousands of dollars owed to him.

And now Dennis Montoya wants to be a judge?

Fact Check:
