JACK SULLIVAN CREATED A GOVERNMENT JOB AND GAVE IT TO HIS WIFE

Jack Sullivan says that he is an advocate for an ethical government, but when it comes to hiring government employees, his actions speak louder than his words.

DIDN'T EVEN ADVERTISE THE JOB

After four applicants declined to be interviewed, the County decided to not advertise for the position a second time and just hired County Commissioner Jack Sullivan's wife.

SULLIVAN WAS PART OF INTERVIEW TEAM

It's no wonder that no one wanted to be interviewed for the job, Jack Sullivan was on the interview team screening applicants.

COUNTY HIRED HIS WIFE WITHOUT AN INTERVIEW

The County didn't even need to interview Jack Sullivan's wife. They hired her without an interview and without opening the job search back up.

BACKROOM DEALS

Despite preaching about ethical and open government, Sullivan is silent when it comes to talking about giving his wife the taxpayer funded position and he won't disclose his conversations with County officials regarding it.
