Instructions for Filing an Elections, Ethics, or Voter Complaint

Complaints are accepted via hand-delivery, mail, facsimile, or e-mail. All contact information for our office is at the bottom of these instructions. Multiple methods of delivery are not necessary and electronically signed complaints are acceptable. If you do not have electronic signature capability, please print the electronically filled form, sign it, and submit it to our office.

Please indicate on your complaint form your preferred method of correspondence. All complaints require the following information:

- The complainant's name, address, and a working telephone number and/or a valid e-mail address;
- The complainant's signature (either electronic or original);
- The date the complainant signed the form;
- The respondent's name, address, and a working telephone number and/or a valid e-mail address; and
- A reasonably particular description of the allegations against the respondent, along with any exhibits or evidence supporting the allegations. These items are written separately from and submitted simultaneously with the Complaint Form.

Our statutory authority to investigate is limited to the following specific portions of state and federal law.

- Election Code and Campaign Practices (Chapter 1 NMSA);
- Lobbyist Regulation Act (Chapter 2, Article 11 NMSA);
- Municipal Election Code (Chapter 3, Articles 8 and 9 NMSA);
- School District Elections (Chapter 22, Article 6 and 7, NMSA);
- Governmental Conduct Act (Chapter 10, Article 16 NMSA);
- Financial Disclosure Act (Chapter 10, Article 16A NMSA); and
- Public Law 107-252, The Help America Vote Act of 2002 ("HAVA").

We do not process or investigate anonymous complaints. Complaints not containing the required information are returned to the complainant with a request to complete the missing information. We may also return complaints if further information or explanation of the allegations is needed by our office. All documents pertaining to a complaint are subject to inspection under the New Mexico Inspection of Public Records Act.

Loyal Republican

James Dickens pictured with former Republican DA, Amy Orlando. Mr. Dickens was Ms. Orlando's Deputy at the DA's office for many years and a very close personal friend. She often left him in charge of the office when she was unavailable.

James Dickens pictured with Gov. Martinez. The Gov. hired Mr. Dickens as a faithful Republican when she was the DA and they have been close friends ever since. He is a loyal confidant of the Gov. and still follows her directions. The Gov. had promised to support Mr. Dickens in his Democratic bid for DA.
